

INDIANA GRAIN BUYERS AND WAREHOUSE LICENSING AGENCY

Rebecca S. Skillman, Lieutenant Governor
Andy Miller, Agriculture Director
Sarah Ash Simpson, Interim Director

Use of IRREVOCABLE LETTERS OF CREDIT for bonding purposes

The Indiana Grain Buyers and Warehouse Licensing Agency can accept, in lieu of a surety bond or cash deposit, an Irrevocable Letter of Credit.

As published in the Indiana Administrative Code Title 824 I.A.C. 2-4-4(c);

An irrevocable letter of credit filed under the Act shall contain the following:

- (1) Be issued by a financial institution insured by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
- (2) Be payable to the director of the agency.
- (3) Give a ninety (90) day notice prior to cancellation.
- (4) Continue the coverage for 18 months after the termination of the license.
- (5) Be issued for a minimum of one year.
- (6) Be renewable.
- (7) Demand for payment shall be the finding of fact and final order issued under administrative law by the director.

NOTE: An irrevocable letter of credit is to be issued in the dollar amount required.
